State Bank of Indiana, Indianapolis, 2½

Branch at Indianapolis, Thos. H. Sharp, Cash.

Branch at New-Albany, J. R. Shields, Cash.
Branch at Evansville, John Douglass, Cash.
Branch at Vincennes, John Ross, Cash.
Branch at Bedford, D. R. Dunihue, Cash.
Branch at Terre Haute, Nathaniel Preston, Cash.
Branch at Lafayette, Cyrus Ball, Cash.
Branch at Fort Wayne, H. M'Culloch, Cash.
Branch at Michigan City, A. P. Andrews, Jr., Cash
Branch at South Bend, Horatio Chapin, Cash.
2's, lett. D; A. P. Andrews, jr. cash., S. Merrill, pres. The imitation of the president's signature is good; paper thick and rough. The eyes of Fulton, on right end of the note, much blurred.
5's, payable at the Madison branch, to H. Watts—signatures are, apparently, in the same hand; in the genuine the female's dress is plain and distinct in the counterfeit it is blurred, and without proper shade.

5's, letts. A A, vig. cradlers. On margin, the heads of Washington & Lafayette. The genuine 5's have on the ends Franklin and Wayne

5's, centre vig. a ship, which none of the genuine have, shorter and narrower than the genuine. The name of Merrill, engraved.

5's, lett. D. dated Oct. 9, 1839, payable at the different branches. Well executed, have generally rather a dull, dead look. The letter V in the left hand margin, is too narrow, and not well proportioned. The bills contain good portraits of Washington and Lafayette, with a vignette of a woman and a ship.

5's, engraved by W. Dunn & Co. and do not at all resemble any bill of the bank. All the engraving for the bank has been done by Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, or by Draper, Toppan & Co.

5's, vig. a female looking to the RIGHT, her arm resting on a sheaf of wheat—plough, &c. In the genuine the vig. is the same, but the female faces to the LEFT instead of the right.

5's, dated Jan. 1, 1839. This bank has never issued any bills bearing date Jan. 1, 1839.

10's, have for a vignette a view of a steamboat, ship, &c.

20's, pay E. Deming, May 1, 1839; R. Millikin, cashier; S. Merrill, pres.; well calculated to deceive. Probably filled up to all the branches of the State Bank.

20's, lett. A. variously dated, and filled up to each of the branches; paper much lighter than genuine; note shorter, and engraving not so distinct. The lines of clouding around the State House are too coarse; the lathe work around the figures is not distinct.

20's and 100's, altered from 5's. May be readily detected, being clumsily altered, and by having retained the heads of particular individuals on the notes, as all the 5's have, none of which heads are on the $20 or $100 bills. The only $20 bill issued has the Indiana State House for its main design, and the only $100 bill has a Roman soldier and matron. The upper and lower margin is cut off the 5's in making the alteration.

100's, lett. A. payable 90 days. Dated Mar. 4, 1843. Well executed, and calculated to deceive.

☞ A number of fraudulent notes are in circulation, ingeniously pieced and pasted together. By holding them up to the light, the absence of any portion may be discovered; and any note, so pieced, should be refused, as the bank will not redeem them at full price.

SAFE BIND, SAFE FIND—Is a very good motto, but such has been the results of the late destructive fires and the ingenuity of modern thieves, that "safe bind" is no such easy matter. We know of but one method of insuring the perfect safety of your books, papers, title deeds, evidences of debt, cash, jewelry, plate, and other valuable property, and that is, deposit them in one of "Herring's Salamander Safes," (behind one of Jones's Changeable Locks, for security against burglars,) and it will be utterly impossible to destroy the contents by fire, as has been satisfactorily proved in the burning of the five story Tribune buildings last February, and at the great fire in this city last July; and again more recently, at the burning of the Suffolk County Banking House and the large Warehouse of Messrs. G. & H. Hunting at Sag Harbor, Long Island.

These Safes, denominated "Wilder's Patent Salamander," are manufactured by S. C. Herring, No. 139 Water street, and the Changeable Locks by H. C. Jones, Newark, N.J., which are susceptible of millions of changes, each barring entrance to the key which shut the bolts if that key be altered in the arrangement of its moveable parts. The locks can be had separate, at the manufacturer's prices, at the Iron Safe Store of S. C. HERRING,

EXCHANGE BROKER,

Thompson's Bank Note Reporter,
No. 64 Wall Street,
NEW-YORK.

H. C. JONES'S Patent Combination Bank Lock.—The subscriber would respectfully inform the public that he now manufactures the above Lock at No. 70 Green street, Newark, N. J. He has been to great expense in the manufacture of the same, and is prepared to supply all orders for this Lock at much less price, according to the size and number of changes, than any other Lock now made in the United States—it being susceptible of more changes than any other lock now made. This Lock has never been picked, as may be known by examining the evidence of the many trials which have been made upon it with a reward of $500 to the person who should succeed. Since the above trials the subscriber has made many sales of the above Lock in the cities of New-York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Albany, Rochester and Buffalo, and other places in the State of New-York, and in the principal cities and towns in Ohio and other States, and it has given entire satisfaction, never getting out of order in any instance. The above Lock is different from all others, and has been examined by some of the best mechanics in the United States, and also by a Committee of the American Institute, who awarded to it the first premium in the fall of 1841, certificates of which have been given, that it is superior to all other Bank Locks, and cannot be picked; and the certificates can be seen upon application to the subscriber, who has recently obtained a patent for this Lock, and the public are cautioned against infringing upon it.
